The Bridge Opened in 1912, the Iowa City/Coralville Bridge straddles the Iowa River on the west side of downtown Iowa City. The twin-pontoon steel through truss bridge, and the world's longest, spanning the river is an international symbol of the city. Parks Parks and green spaces in Iowa City include the Iowa Memorial Union, Dordt Theatre, Memorial Stadium, Dickson-Randle Reservation, Eckhart Park, Morningside Park, and the Old Capitol Visitors Center. The outdoor venue known as Memorial Stadium, in the northeastern corner of the city, is a popular gathering spot for crowds to enjoy the water fountains and loons. The small grassy area, which was once named Little Dickson-Randle Reservation in honor of the school founder and small-town minister John Randle and Dean of Missions Benjamin Dickson, is home to hundreds of visitors on a typical summer day. In the 1980s, a new boathouse was added to Memorial Stadium, allowing for
