Holy Family of Nazareth (Monaco) Holy Family of Nazareth was a monumental sculpture by Antonio Canova, erected on Monte Carlo in 1810 as the gift of Emmanuel Louis Napoleon, nephew of the Prince of Buonaparte. Description The monument is set in a small park in front of the national theatre (now called the Théâtre de la Monnaie), created during the Belle Époque. The sculpture was created in a rococo style, characteristic of Canova's works in neoclassicism. The statue was made of Carrara marble and stood on a high pediment with four faces with 28 life-size statues, a total of 68 figures, forming a square (4x4) with 28 faces and 24 bodies. Statue The statue itself is worth describing in great detail: Figure Count 1st face: Francis Xavier, cardinal of Jesus, kneeling on a kneeling nest 2nd face: Mother of God, kneeling on a kneeling nest 3rd face: Diana, goddess of hunting, kneeling on a kneeling nest 4th face: Catherine I, kneeling on a kneeling nest Bodies The bodies were taken from various sculptures and portrait busts created by Canova. In this way, the statue shows 34 of Canova's contemporaries: 1st row Alessandro Algardi, seated figure, with a clochette (bell) Simon Metivier, the Architect, in a half-seated pose Thomas Lawrence, portrait bust, in a half-seated pose Antonio f30f4ceada
