Sydney Swans veteran Lance Franklin has revealed the news that he will retire at the end of this season, and it's a sad day for the Club. Franklin, 26, has been at the Swans since 2008 and has played 194 games in the red, white and blue. "It's the toughest decision I've ever had to make," Franklin told AFL.com.au. "I'm not thinking about the next six weeks, that's for sure. It's about reflecting back on my career and making sure it's going to be good. "I want to play as long as possible and give this footy club the best chance to make finals, that's the main thing for me." One of the Swans' most experienced players, the South Melbourne product has been one of the League's best forwards in recent times. The versatile forward/ruckman has played 18 games in a Swans forward/ruck role this year and has been a consistent performer. But his performance at the Swans' MCG farewell against the Brisbane Lions last weekend, where he was denied a chance to kick a goal from the siren, had some fans asking if he had lost a step 570a42141b
