It won't take long for this world to realize what has happened. And then it's over. He looked at the world and thought about what would happen to him. What will he do. He was afraid for himself. He feared for his friends and family. He was afraid that they would not be able to understand what was going to happen. When he saw that some objects were flying in the air, he could not help but be interested. All his thoughts about how to defend himself if they were enemies were gone. He rushed to one of these objects.
