The cash you received will not transferred to another account. I was given a bonus of $20 which I can see in my game account. I played a lot of games and won a lot of cash, but I can not get to the bonus tab, so I can see the cash. My account is not verified, but I can't put in any money to the bonus tab. Half of the cash I won is sent to the original wager and the rest is on the bonus tab. Does this still apply? Thanks.
