Songs of Innocence, Songs of Experience, Songs of Innocence..Clearwater, New York Clearwater is a town in Niagara County, New York, United States. The population was 1,989 at the 2010 census. It is part of the Buffalo-Niagara Falls Metropolitan Statistical Area. The Town of Clearwater is located in the western part of the county, west of Buffalo. History The town was first settled around 1784. The town was created from part of the Town of Tonawanda in 1828, and then from part of the Town of Tonawanda in 1840. The town was within the Fort Niagara Reservation in the latter half of the 18th century. On September 21, 2010, a fire destroyed the town office. On March 12, 2014, a tornado damaged two houses and injured two people in the town. The tornado was rated EF1 on the Enhanced Fujita Scale, with winds of 100–160 mph (160–260 km/h). Town information The ZIP code for the town is 14420. The first post office in the town is listed as "Clearwater", and was established in 1834. The office was closed in April 2007. A new post office was established in May 2012. The town and surrounding area is known for its wineries and local vineyards. It is home to Viegas Cellars, located near the confluence of the Tonawanda and Niagara Rivers. The towns of Youngstown, Unadilla, and the City of Tonawanda are the only communities that have voted to secede from the town. There are several state parks located within the town. There are also several trails for biking and hiking. The Leffingwell Falls, built between two adjacent gorges of the Niagara Escarpment, is a well-known outdoor attraction. Numerous farms, including the Gimble's Flat Historic Preserve, are within the town as well. The town has five churches, three of them Catholic, a Baptist, a Methodist, 648931e174
