What's new:

[Story] They had been safely transported through the portal to a rune. They searched around and woke up there, but discovered they were on the wrong side. "What the hell are we supposed to do now?" "If we can find some way to return, we can at least try to save Celia-san." The three adventurers walked around in bewilderment while investigating various places. "I wonder if this is it. Now you two want to get in the thick of things, don't you?" "If we can return, Celia-san will get over her wayward thoughts about us. She'll be able to make amends with us." "So you truly have no interest in going back and helping her?" A long silence filled the air and a gloomy look was visible on the faces of the adventurers. "It's not that I had no motivation to go back, but..." "Why do you always have a problem expressing what you're thinking? You can be really aggravating sometimes." "I've reached an important conclusion and I'm happy about it. I'm sorry for not being straightforward, but..." "I won't bother you anymore." After that, the three adventurers walked through the winding deep underground passageways.
