The accused, Mariamma, was arrested from Kaniyambadi near Madurai on Friday after a CCTV camera of the house showed her in a compromising position with the deceased, who was shown as a police officer. Her father had complained to the Madurai Central Police that his daughter had staged the rape and was demanding Rs 5 lakh as compensation. The woman is also suspected to have murdered the man and dumped his body near the house where she lives. Police suspect that she had also confined the man in the house, regularly robbed him and made him take the blame for her actions. Investigating officer S Sasikumar said Mariamma was traced based on a complaint lodged by her father. "We have questioned her for more than two hours and she is willing to cooperate with us," he said. According to police, the couple fought over money. "He filed the complaint after she asked him for money. Our investigation revealed that the couple fought over money regularly and he was losing money. The father filed the complaint after he suspected his daughter had committed a rape," he added. Police said Mariamma said that she had always been on the streets since the age of 16 and had made many friends. "She said that she was kidnapped several times and cheated in a marriage."
