As our company is a small company we were using the services of a company based in Bangkok as a mailing list system. The company in charge of the mailing list system was unable to perform the task and they are not providing an option to change to another list system. This company charged us 1000 baht per mailing list (this is a fixed rate without any discounts or promotions) and required our company to print a thick (postcard size) envelope for the mailing list.
