Every player should have, at least once, an opportunity to give of their support to the playing of the Classics of open DnD in America. For individuals or groups needing more than one person. To do that, we have a quorum roll, and that would include everyone. Done Deal! I will beat the aideaulator with my bday cake for you. ALL you have to do is bring us to the RPGA National Board meeting and get a stamp out of me. Every person who helps me raise $250 and who meets the following criteria will get a Hero Dog Collar for themselves and a Hero Shaggy Dog Tee for someone else in our group. 1. You are currently listed as a hero in the RPGA Roster. 2. That is an honorary title. 3. You have an annual income of no less than $8,000 and take no more than 30% off sales as a tax matter. 4. He had been printing RPGA RPGaRRdiculous!, Secrets of a Clever Mouse and other similar things for other game companies. We are now printing RPGA Nopetyes, RPGA Food and Drink and RPGA Compendium. The new Dressing Room series returns with another set of beautiful fantasies for players to try on. The ability to purchase costume sets has also been added to the game! This week, I've put together a set of four outfits that I hope you will enjoy wearing in Fable II. The costumes come in sets of three, and are available in Male, Female, Hetero and Furry versions. Each of the outfits is available for both Male and Female avatar types. There is also a version available for those who are a furry of sorts: a Furries outfit! As with the outfits available in the previous Dressing Room, each set of clothes comes with a whole bunch of new items, including new styles of 'Identification Tag', 'Sarong', 'Glasses' and 'Hair Transplant' related items. This week's Dressing Room also sees the introduction of a new 'Game Power' called 'The Dating Game'. This power makes it possible for you to approach another Avatar in an effort to try out new outfits! (Of course, your success in this will depend on how well you look and your own Avatar's game.) The 'The Dating Game' power is available from the 'Special Powers' menu under the 'Other' category. To sum up the difference between the two outfits, here are the descriptions for each: Furries: The Furries outfit is designed by Sessha as an homage to the outfits worn by furries. In this outfit you will find all the clothing items that are normally worn by furries, such as beards, tights, socks, hats and more. This is a great outfit for people who are into furry or/and costume fetish activity! Gentlemen's Coat: The 'Gentlemen's Coat' outfit is a perfect replica of the many gentlemen coats that are commonly seen around. It gives you a refined, formal, almost royal feel. This is a great outfit for people looking to achieve a respectable, sophisticated and formal look. Shady Sunglasses: The 'Shady Sunglasses' costume set is a great deal more than just a pair of sunglasses. With it you can wear fashionable, sophisticated and powerful shades that will always be one step ahead of their opponents. This item also features two shades for you to swap around. Fancy Lingerie: What is better than fancy lingerie? It's a secret, of course
