Hunt: Showdown is a PvP-focused, co-op experience in which you and your friends take to the rails to fight a never-ending war of survival for control of post-apocalyptic Huntsville. At the center of this struggle is a haunted town, and the character classes that will define your playstyle. Each class has its own skills, playstyle, weapon and aesthetics. Hunt: Showdown will take place in a persistent (non-sandbox) world in which players will be able to fully customize their experience.
