Chapter 1 : The Emissary The story begins with the "personal is political" statement of one of the sisters... Play in about 60 seconds

===== The girls, Remi and Tamare, work at the Old Town Décor Co., which is a small day-to-day shop with the working motto of its owner, "all things sold are one-of-a-kind". The owner's real name is Alda. She's the younger sister of Remi, and the only one to know what her sister's name really is: Sheetra. But Remi is the only one who's aware of the girls' secret power, the ability to use their enameled chokers to make objects come to life. In other words, "they can create objects with their enameled chokers, but can also summon them whenever they wish". "It's all just a dream, though. The hard part is actually saying the magic words— I couldn't believe it when I was told that it was true, but I'm starting to think it's true." The Princess disappeared 100 years ago. And it all started with an email. Because this princess was such a brilliant and beautiful young girl, her disappearance was a major topic for the nation. The parents of the missing Princess were both killed by a poisoned knife. They were found in their bedroom. And they were frozen together. One day later, the frozen princess was stolen and hidden somewhere by someone. Then, who could have abducted a frozen princess? Fans throng

The one and only (from what I can tell) bug that I have with the game is that in the field where you can mark a person's information, it sometimes works and sometimes doesn't. If it doesn't, I have to reload the game and it will probably work. Haven't looked into it more than that, but I would like to be sure that this is solved before I spend more time and money on it
