Q: Do i need to create a spring bean for @RestController in the jsp I have a jsp file (simplified) which calls a spring method. This method is annotated with @RestController.

@RestController @RequestMapping("/admin/users") public class UserController { @RequestMapping(method = RequestMethod.GET) public User get() { return new User("User"); } }

This spring controller works fine. My JSP file looks like this

ID	Email	Username	Password	First Name	Last Name	Gender	Birth Date
${user.id}

These are the days when the United States makes her presence globally known, and the world is witness to the greatness of her superpower status. It is amazing how the world comes to know of her power when a remarkable system is put in place, and hence, she has been receiving respect and recognition from all over the globe. With this power comes responsibilities, and it requires her to do her part for the maintenance of this great system. The US Dollar Is the World's Standard of Measure When we look at the currencies of the world, the US Dollar, or the USD, is the standard of measure for the rest of the world. It is a major role that the US plays, and as a country, it has to do all that is required of it. Among the other areas that the US needs to focus on are the military, economy, standard of living of the masses, and the healthcare of the people. It is estimated that only two years ago, the US could look at the single currency of the rest of the world, and today, its dollar is quoted at a much higher rate. The US Dollar is at the Forefront of Global Value It is not just the US Dollar, but the US economy has been at the forefront of the global market over the years, and it is still making a positive impact on the rest of the world. In spite of all the economic problems and downfalls that the US has experienced over the years, it still comes out with something that the world can use, and it is the US dollar. This is one of the reasons why there is a correlation between the US dollar and the other currencies of the world. The US Dollar as a Storehouse of Wealth Another great and beneficial aspect of the US is the fact that it is a good storehouse of wealth. Whenever there is a need of money, the US Dollar can be used as currency, and the prices in the market for goods and services are in relation to the US Dollar. In the global economy, the US Dollar is the standard, and without it, there is no way of storing wealth. US is the World's Leading Investor The US is also the leading investor in the world, and it invests money in foreign countries and not in the US. When it comes to foreign countries, the US is one of the most important investors in the world today.
